

Wales

RWE is one of the world's leading renewable energy companies, and the #1 renewable generator in Wales

Involvement in

>3 GW*

including the UK's first large-scale offshore wind farm North Hoyle

In operation

3 Offshore wind farms

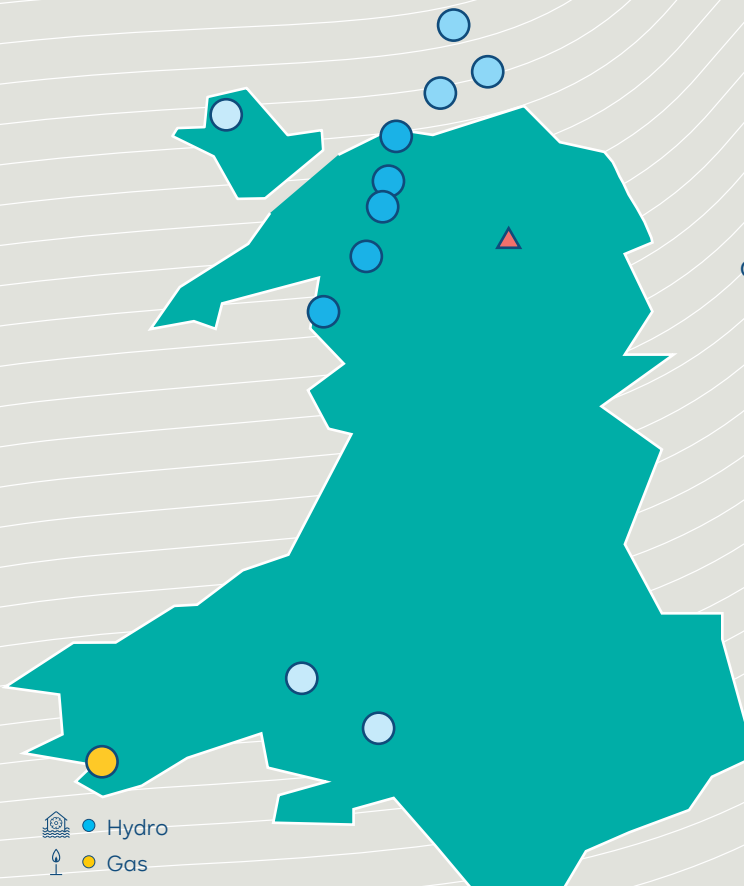

5 Hydro power stations

3 Onshore wind farms

1 Gas fired power station

- Offshore wind
- Onshore wind
- Hydro
- Gas
- Under construction

RWE in Wales

Largest electricity generator with involvement in almost 1GW of renewable energy, we are at the forefront to a low carbon future.

Over the last decade, together with our partners, RWE has invested over £3 billion to deliver projects in Wales.

An ambitious pipeline with 4 onshore and 1 offshore wind farms in development.

*RWE pro rata share 2,652 MW including 50% share of Gwynt y Môr (576MW) and 50% share of Rhyl Flats (90MW)

Operated but not owned by RWE (60MW)

Annual community funding will amount to over

£ 2.4 million

Decisions made by local people for local people

Pembroke Power Station

£ 20 million

Gwynt y Môr

£ 8 million

annual contribution to local economy